

Hospital (BCH, ROH and Heartlands)
Parent and Pupil Survey results
Autumn 2018

I am happy with the service provided by the school

My child's hospital teachers are approachable

Agree
5%

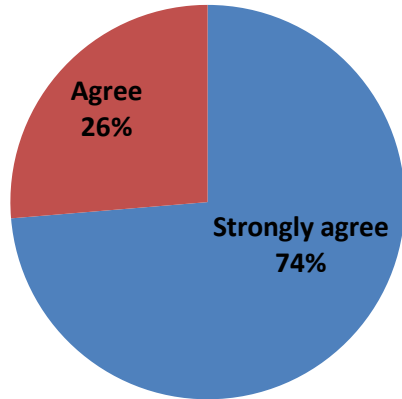

Parental Feedback

My child has enjoyed their lesson(s) provided by James Brindley School

19 responses

My child engages well with lessons & they are an appropriate length

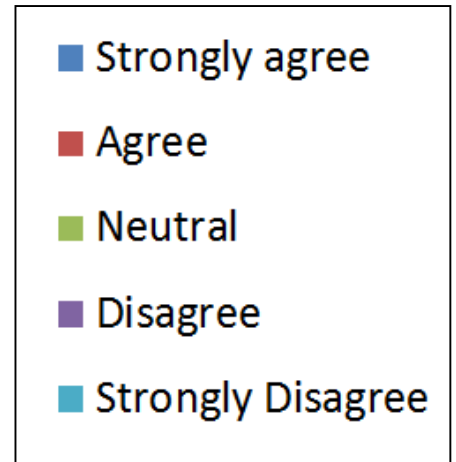

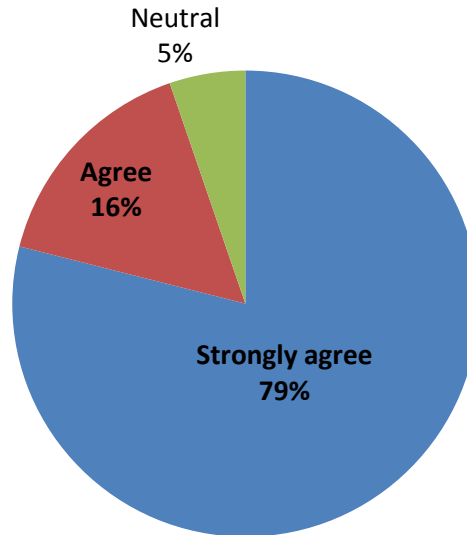

I feel the staff at JBS take into account my child's educational needs

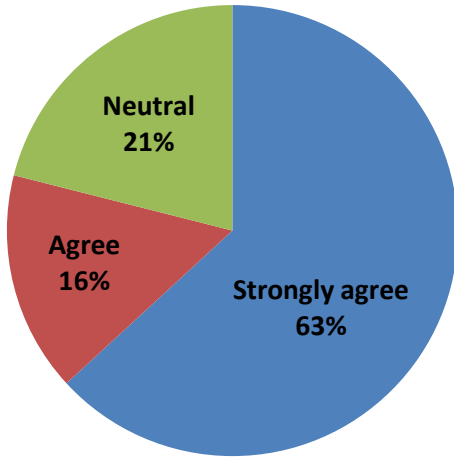

Parental Feedback

JBS staff take into consideration any special needs or medical conditions when teaching my child

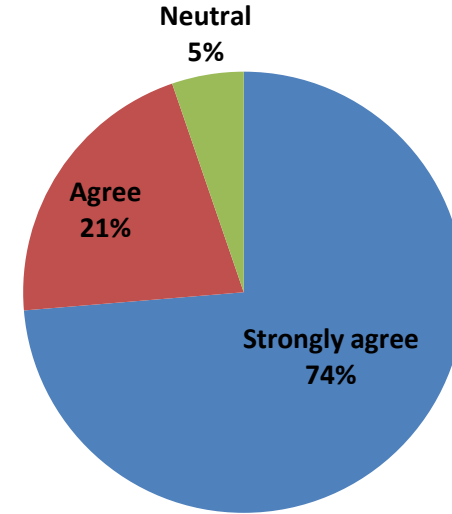

19 responses

JBS has a good link with my child's home school & the medical staff

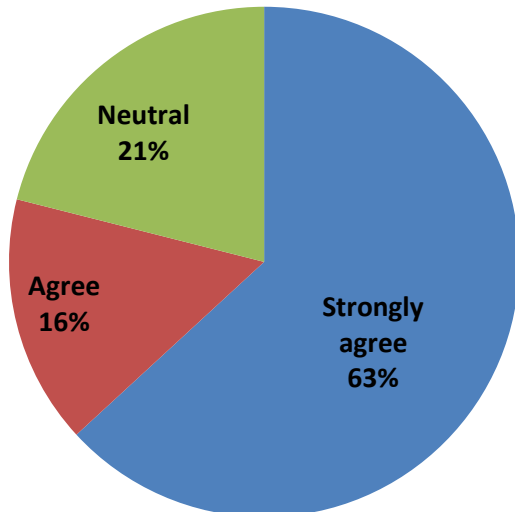

I believe that the hospital education has helped my child with their overall recovery

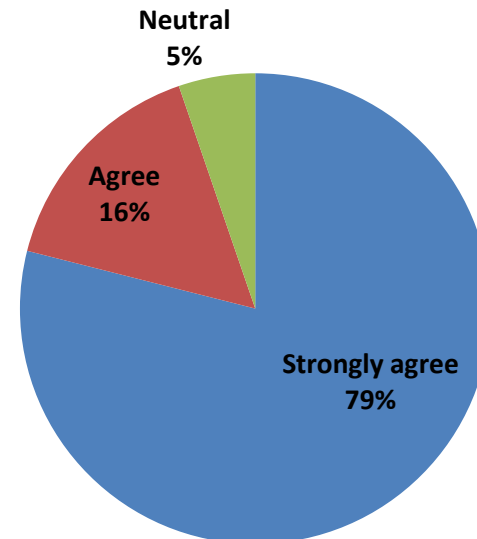

Parental Feedback

I think my child has been set enough work to continue independently

I would recommend this school to other parents with children in this hospital

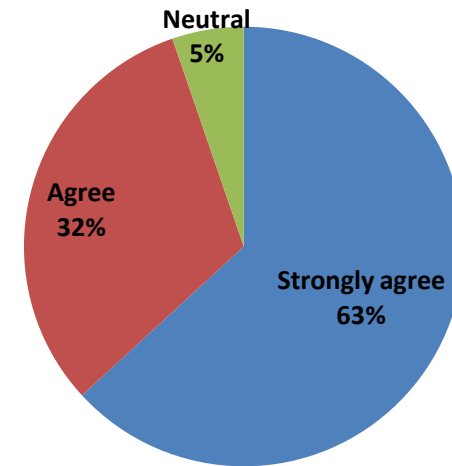

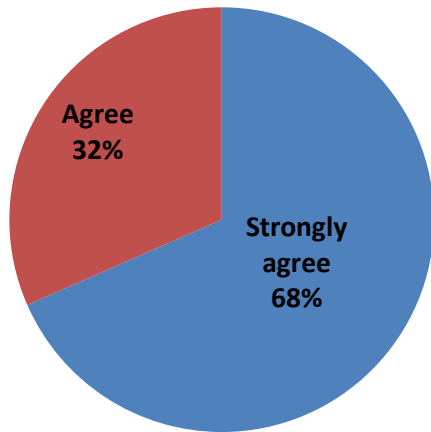

19 responses

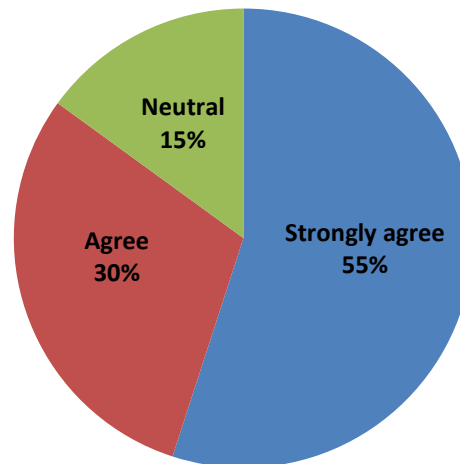

My teacher tells me what I have done well during my lessons

I enjoy my hospital lessons

Pupil Feedback

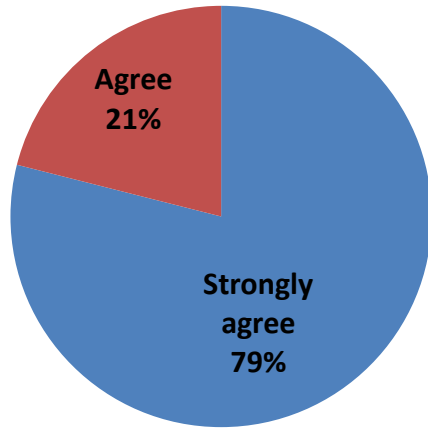

My teacher tells me what I can do to improve my work and my next steps

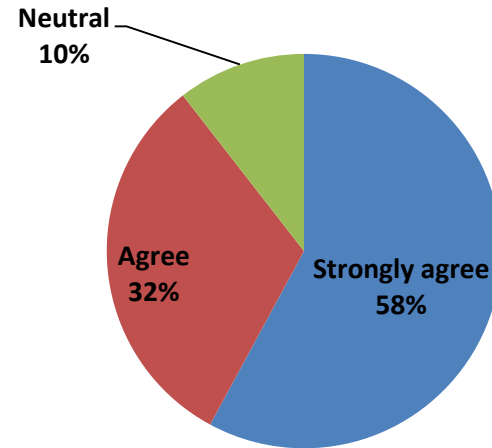

19 responses

I find the James Brindley Staff very approachable

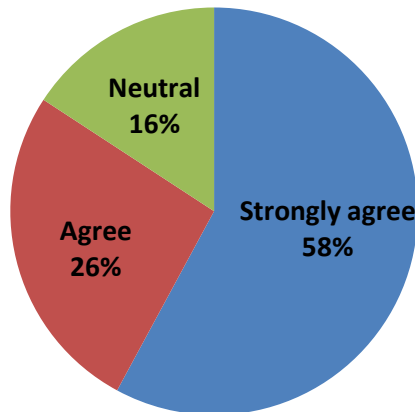

My work is set at an appropriate level that challenges me

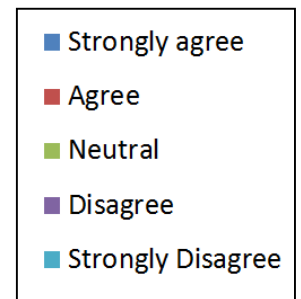

Pupil Feedback

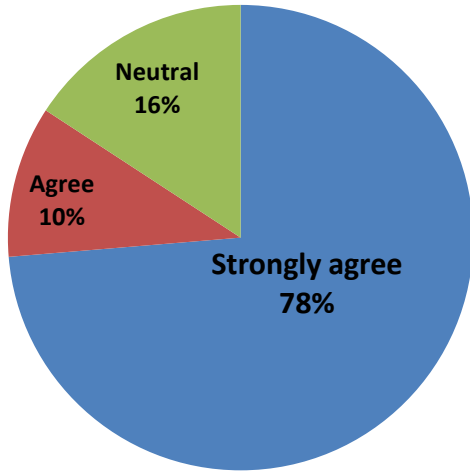

I can recognise the JBS staff by their school badge

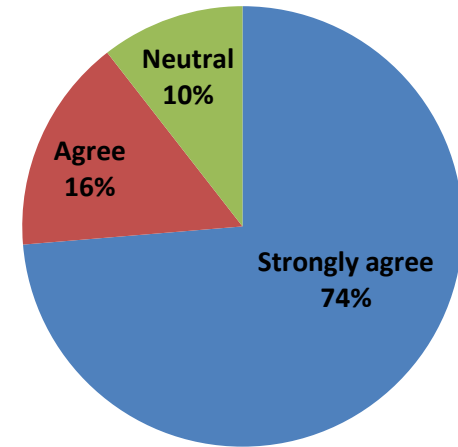

19 responses

The James Brindley staff respect my confidentiality

JBS has a good link my family, my home school and the medical staff

Pupil Feedback

The JBS staff understand my needs - educational and medical - during my lessons

19 responses

